FOR AN ON-THE-FARM CELEBRATION OF LOCAL CUISINE

The farms and vineyards of the Old Trails Region have gifted us with a bounty to celebrate!

The Santa Fe Trail Food & Wine Festival is one event you don't want to miss.

Drawing participants from the Trail's eastern beginnings in the Boonville area and including the western Missouri, KC metro area, the festival promises to be an exciting cornucopia of local cuisine.

The Santa Fe Food & Wine Festival will feature a nominal entrance fee that will include a wine glass to sample tastings from over a dozen Missouri wineries. Designated drivers and those under 21 are admitted at no charge to make this an affordable event for the entire family.

The festival will be held at Fahrmeier Farms, a picturesque market farm 20 minutes east of the metro KC area off of Highway 24 just outside of Lexington, Missouri.

Participants will get the opportunity to see local chefs in action, view artistic displays featuring local produce, learn more about food, wine and local cuisine as well as browse the displays of area vendors. The festival will be promoted throughout the Old Trails Region and will include a website at:
